

LIBERTY CENTER'S Mary Reighard was the first girl in the area to hit the 1,000 point milestone this season as she had yet another one of her dreams come true on Dec. 14. Reighard, a four-year varsity letterwinner in basketball, is also the defending Class A state champion in both the shot put and the discus.

The most recent 1,000 point scorer is a junior from Pandora-Gilboa. Roxie Zimmerly became the first person in Pandora-Gilboa history (male or female) to reach the plateau. Zimmerly scored 22 points against Cory-Rawson this past Monday to give her 1,009 career points.
