

NWOAL all-league selections released

Respective scoring leaders, Mark Onweller and Sue Camp were members of the Northwest Ohio Athletic League boys' and girls' all-league first teams.

Joining Onweller on the first squad were Delta's Dan Miller and Tim Zedlitz; Wauseon's Dave Wyse (the only junior on the first team); Archbold's Dave Walker, and Swanton's Greg Mossing.

Camp, who was the Class AA District 7 player of the year, topped the first team selections for the girls while Becky Brown, of Montpelier, was the only other senior on the first team. Archbold juniors Julie Bernath and Kim Bosco and Wauseon junior Sue Creager were the other first team selections.

Second team selections for the boys included: Archbold's Brad Rupp, Jeff Thames, of Swanton, Evergreen's Bill Wynn, Patrick Henry's Dennis Boyer, Randy Brock, of Wauseon, Liberty Center's Todd Burdue, and Bryan's Jon Batt and Stan Walker.

Taking second team honors for the girls were: Delta's Kim Bushman, Wauseon's Jamie Knox, Evergreen's Chris Mossing, Swanton's LaRae Pettit, and Bryan's Trisha Smith.

Boys' honorable mention honors went to: Swanton's Stuart Sims, Clint Garber, of Montpelier, Patrick Henry's Alan Rosebrock and Dan Hoops, Liberty Center's John Bowers, Delta's Ray Alva, Larry Wyse, of Archbold, and Montpelier's Tyler Thorpe.

Third team selections for the girls were: Evergreen's Rosie Gillen, Wauseon's Tracy Hanson, Swanton's Jackie McGhee, Evergreen's Lynn Parke, Archbold's Carolyn Stuckey, Bryan's Polly Weaver, and Patrick Henry's Cathy Yungman.

Girls honorable mention honors went to: Archbold's Brenda Oyer and Betty Rychener, Delta's Laura Haupricht, Evergreen's Robin Kaczmarek, Patrick Henry's Penni Bostelman, and Montpelier's Connie Brown and Teresa Bible.
