

NAPOLEON — Napoleon High golfers regained the Northwest Ohio League crown they relinquished a year ago to Bryan by winning the annual meet held Saturday at municipal course.

The Naps, who had won five years in a row, were back on top again after they shot a 537 to beat Swanton by 20 shots. Bryan was third with 597 and Montpelier last with 617.

Tom Moore of Napoleon, the state lefthanders' champion, and Toledo district junior champ, was medalist with a 35-40 — 75 over the par 74 course.
