

Bernie Boff and Dick Harris Put On All-N.W.O. League Cage Quintet

Bernie Boff and Dick Harris of Defiance were chosen by the Northwest Ohio League coaches on an all-league basketball team at an NWOL meeting in Napoleon Wednesday night.

Other first-stringers named were Bob Young and Elmer Hogrefe of Liberty Center and Homer Scott of Montpelier.

The second team is composed of Jack Lehman of Defiance, Del Huener and Dick Hoover of Napoleon, Dallas Lamb of Wauseon and Paul Hummel of Bryan. Honorable mention went to Jerry Behringer of Defiance, Dick Mengerink of Napoleon, Gene Benner and Dave Bell of Bryan, Jamie Tallman of Liberty and Dan Winzeler of Montpelier.

ings for that purpose. Newspapers will also be asked to sponsor league track trophies.

Montpelier and Defiance are the only NWOL schools sponsoring baseball teams this spring. Bryan, Defiance, Napoleon and Montpelier will have golf teams and a league meet may be held in May.

Defiance's Athletic Boosters Club has given DHS $150 with which to get baseball and golf started. The school had no money for this purpose.

Defiance officials who attended the Napoleon meeting were Claude W. Henkle, Harold Palmer, Carter Burney, Clare Hoefel, Lester Riggle and Don Hampshire.
