ARCHBOLD—Doug Krauss, former freshman basketball coach at Archbold High School, has been named the boys varsity basketball coach.

Krauss succeeds Steve Rettig whose contract wasn't renewed in May. Last year the Blue Streaks had a 10-10 regular season record and were 12-11 overall as they won the Bryan sectional but lost to North Central in overtime in the district semi-finals.

The first-year varsity coach will have five experienced seniors including leading scorer Ryan Miller at 13.1 points per clip. Adding strong support are Ed Miller and Brian Ziegler with 8.5 and 8.7, points respectively.

Krauss also coaches the Archbold varsity baseball squad which advanced to the Class A District finals three weeks ago where the Blue Streaks were upended by North Central. Krauss was just honored as Crescent-News baseball Coach of the Year.

His brother, Dave, was recently named boys cage coach at Patrick Henry after a successful stint at Stryker.
