

DAN McQUADE of Swanton kept the Northwest Ohio League scoring championship in the family for the third straight year. Dan tallied 128 points and averaged 21.3 this season to retain the title he won during the 1958-59 campaign. His brother copped the crown during the 1957-58 season.

Dave Conrad of Napoleon and Paul Byall of Montpelier tied for second place in the NWOL with 90 points each.
