

Napoleon Has 2 On NWOL Stars

BRYAN—Co-champion Napoleon High placed two players on the Northwest Ohio League (NWOL) all-star quintet selected by coaches at a recent meeting.

Nap stars selected are Dave Pratt, 5-11 junior, and Tom Swearingen, also a 5-11 junior. Co-champion Archbold has Gene Bridges, 5-10 junior, on the first five.

Other first team members are Bob Goghry, Montpelier, 5-10 senior, and Harold Bower, Swanton, 6-5 senior.

Pratt and Loghry, repeaters from last year, were unanimous choices.

The second outfit, comprises six players because of a tie in voting. The unit lists Dean Miller, Richard Stuckey and Larry Holland of Archbold; Tom Kimberly of Liberty Center; Rick Volk of Wauseon and Ron Stevens of Napoleon.
